

Tuesday 6 February	Wednesday 7 February	Thursday 8 February	Friday 9 February
Arrival of participants	09:00 – The ILO and the challenge to the right to strike , John Hendy QC lawyer (TBC) – Presentation and debate	09:00 – Legislative tools for defending trade union rights in Europe and the work of the ETUC, ETUC (TBC) – Presentation and debate	09:00 – Lessons from TU campaigns – Plenary exercise 9:40 – Trade unions needs at the European level – Group Work and dissemination
	10:30 – Coffee break	10:30 – Coffee break	10:30 – Coffee break
	11:00 – Labour Rights under attack – Presentation and debate	11:00 – Defending trade union rights at the European level – Group Work and report back	11:00 – Solidarity is not only a word – Plenary exercise 11:45 – Summary and evaluation
12:30 – Lunch	12:30 – Lunch	12:30 – Lunch	12:30 – Lunch
14:00 – Welcome notes , ETUI, Martin Hegarty TUC and Claire Sullivan, Director, Employment Relations and Union Services (ERUS), CSP 14 :15 – Participants introduction 15 :00 – ETUI Programme objectives	14:00 – Violations and degradations of trade union (TU) and labour rights in Europe – Plenary exercise	14:00 – The TUC campaign to defend the right to strike and organise in the UK , Antonia Bance TUC – Presentation and debate	Departures
15:30 – Coffee break	15:30 – Coffee break	15:30 – Coffee break
16:00 – The trade union and labour rights a European and global perspective – Working groups and report back	16:00 – Causes for attacks, violations, degradations of TU / labour rights – Group Work and report back	16:00 – Analyse of trade union campaigns on TU / labour rights – plenary exercise
17:30 – End of working day	End of working day	End of working day
19:30– Dinner in the center	19:30– Dinner in the center	20:00 – Dinner out

“Stem the tide! Restriction of trade unions / labour rights in Europe”

Esher, UK, 6.-9.02. 2018

